

WELCOME

We want to make your interview as easy and as pleasant as possible. To help us do so, please read carefully the following special directions and then complete this form fully and accurately. Your co-operation will ensure a fast and fair interview.

1. THE LAW

United States immigration law presumes that you are an immigrant until you demonstrate that you are a nonimmigrant. To qualify you for a nonimmigrant visa, you must absolutely convince a consular officer that you have such very strong reasons for returning to Jamaica that you will definitely do so after a temporary stay in the United States. These strong reasons may be a combination of economic, family, or community-related reasons or anything else that you may care to demonstrate. The burden of proof is on you, however, please be prepared to be open and truthful in presenting your case.

ANY INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE IS ONLY FOR UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT USE

2. THE DOCUMENTS

Every applicant requires a fully completed application form. Either answer every question or indicate "Not Applicable" ("N/A"). Every applicant also needs a valid passport and one colored passport-size photograph. When applying for certain visas, additional documents are definitely required. Please make sure you have these before you apply.

CHILD: If you are applying for a visa on behalf of your child, you must also present your passport and a certified copy of the child's birth certificate from the Registrar of Civil Documents in Spanish Town.

SPOUSE: If you are applying for a visa and your spouse already holds a valid visa, you must also present your spouse's passport and a certified copy of your marriage certificate from the Registrar of Civil Documents in Spanish Town.

STUDENT: If you are applying for a student visa, you must also present a valid form I - 20 from the school; evidence that you are in possession of all funds needed to pay your educational and living expenses such as bank statements, parent's job letters showing earnings, affidavit of support, etc.

MEDICAL: If you would like to go to the U.S. for medical treatment, you must present a letter from your doctor here explaining the nature of your medical problem and why treatment is not available in Jamaica; a letter from a doctor in the U.S. offering to treat you which states the cost of the treatment and hospitalization and the expected length of your stay; evidence of your ability to pay these expenses such as bank statements; and job letter showing your income, and any other special arrangements made with your employer.

3. THE DECISION

We hope that you will be found eligible for a United States nonimmigrant visa. But, should you be found ineligible at this time, we will give you a written explanation why you were denied and instructions on how, if you care to, you may reapply in writing.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION.
